

1. Park in the Unloading Zone. Go check-in with your canopy (if using one) while everyone else unloads the car. The canopy needs to be set up before supplies are brought into the market.
2. Transport your supplies to your booth, then move your car to the Parking. This is to open the Unloading Zone for other families to unload and for your kids' customers.

